5th ANNUAL BOSTON SALSA CONGRESS™ HEATS UP NEW ENGLAND

Boston, MA— For world-class Salsa dancing, instruction and entertainment, the 5th Annual Boston Salsa Congress™ at Springstep is the place to be September 16th-18th. The three-day event, presented by SalsaBoston, Latin Motions, and DJ Hernan is expected to draw over 1000 participants of all ages and cultures to study and celebrate Salsa through workshops, performances, social dances, and live music. Last year's event was a huge success and the Boston Salsa Congress is rapidly gaining a reputation as one of the most fun and well-organized events of its kind.

This year's Congress will feature more than 50 internationally renowned performers, instructors, and musicians from around the country and across the globe. These Salsa Stars will teach over thirty daytime workshops for beginner, intermediate, and advanced level adults and youths. Nightly performances by visiting Salsa dance companies, as well as many of New England's own stars, will heat up the evening and Congress attendees can dance until 2:00am to music selections from renowned Salsa DJ's.

The entire event will be hosted by Springstep, Boston's newest non-profit center for multicultural dance and music, located in Medford Square. A prominent venue for social dances of all kinds and cultures, the modern 4 story dance facility is ideally suited to host the Salsa Congress. Featuring food and bar facilities, and two stunning ballrooms with sprung wood dance floors with state-of-the-art sound systems, Springstep will accommodate simultaneous events allowing exciting performances in one space and non-stop dancing in the other. The atrium lounge will become into the "Mambo Mall" offering community information, dance related merchandise, and Latin food for sale throughout the event.

The Boston Salsa Congress is designed to benefit dancers of all levels from advanced to beginners. In fact, it is a great introduction to Salsa dancing for those who have had no prior experience. Join Boston Salseros in celebrating the most exciting Salsa event in New England to date!

For tickets, registration, hotel info, and further event information visit the Salsa Congress website at www.salsaboston.com/congress or call 617-513-9841.
